QUALITY POLICY

WAP scope of process is "Services of Software Development" that put the relevant values for policy of quality management system and its practices to meet or exceed all the applicable regulatory, statutory, interested parties, and customer's requirements and expectation for satisfaction.

Customer satisfaction is supported by continual improvement through planning and objectives of quality management system and necessary actions and risk based strategic management against nonconformities.

WAP shall achieve the effectiveness of management system through review of processes.

WAP shall ensure the competence of its workmanship for marvelous outcome to quality management system through awareness programmes and shall make the policy statement of quality management system able to be transmissible among interested parties.

Abbas Iqbal
CEO Workstream